Werner Finke (1942–2002) was an Austrian ethnographer who traveled regularly to Turkey for more than three decades. He made audiovisual documentations and ethnographic collections in the areas inhabited by Kurds. After his sudden passing away, his collection of approximately 30,000 photographs was dedicated to the Institute for Social Anthropology (ISA) at the Austrian Academy of Sciences by Werner Finke's sister Sylvia Widhalm. Through funding provided by the Austrian Science Fund (FWF PEEK Projekt AR 682), the materials are being digitized, scientifically processed, and published online. The digital images are being created by ISA staff member Mag. Mehmet Emir.
